

How to Create a Hive Game

Hive games are like interactive spelling tests where children are given the same spellings at the same time as each other as they would in a spelling test.

Hive games are played live so if someone joins the game late they will miss the words at the start of the game.

To join a hive game, you need a code.

Teachers will not be creating hive games for pupils but pupils can create their own hive games to play against each other if they wish.

Here is the guidance for creating a hive game.

The person who created the hive game can see who has joined, once everyone has joined, that person can then press 'Start Game'.

All players will get the same words to spell.

League Table

#	Player	Correct Answers	Score
1.	Daisy B (@daisyb200)	2 / 2	6,680pts
2.	Richard (@richard66)	1 / 2	2,000pts

After each word the League Table will appear to show how people have done.

At the end of the game people will see how they have got on, how many points they have scored and how many honey pots they have earned.
