This free event takes place throughout August and is aimed at families, keen gardeners and wildlife conservationists. It puts wildlife gardening and conservation in the limelight and looks at the many easy and fun ways you can make a few small changes to turn your garden into a haven for wildlife. No matter how big or small your garden, everyone can make a difference and create a sanctuary for nature. If every garden played a part, imagine the giant patchwork of habitats that could be created, all the new homes for birds, frogs, toads, hedgehogs, bees, butterflies and other mini-beasts that could be mad and all the mouths that could be fed. Perhaps you'll be inspired to start your own new hobby! We will set up light traps in the Wildlife Meadow at Ashwood Nurseries on the previous evening and open them up for you on the lawn outside the Tea Room (opposite the Plant Sales House). Don't forget to bring your camera. Children are very welcome too: moths are a great way for children to interact with the natural world and surveying moths is a highly educational activity! Mike Williams from Butterfly Conservation West Midlands will be on hand to answer any moth or butterfly related questions you might have. Free event, just turn up.	0	99

Disenchanted! – The Sassitude Tour	The Crestwood School, Bromley Lane, Kingswinford, DY6 8QG	07817 680849	Friday 27 & Saturday 28 July, 7.30pm  Following their sold-out Midlands premiere production last year; this July Third From The Right Productions bring Dennis T. Giacino's hilarious off-Broadway hit "Disenchanted!" to the Crestwood Theatre as part of their 2018 Sassitude Tour. From lands far, far away, the fairy twist in the tale, fun-filled musical "Disenchanted!" introduces you to the princesses from the original fairy tales who are none too happy with the way all those 'magical' storybooks and 'classic' animated movies - not to mention their ol' buddy Walt - portray them. Poisoned apples. Glass slippers. Who needs 'em?! Not Snow White and her posse of Disenchanted! princesses in the hilarious hit musical that is anything but Grimm. Forget the princesses you think you know. When these royal rebels toss off their tiaras, this hilariously subversive, not-for-the-kiddies musical cleverly reveals what happened to Snow White and her storybook princess friends after 'Happily Ever After!' PLEASE NOTE: Due to some adult themes and language if you're a prince or princess under 14 then sorry but you're too young for "Disenchanted!" Tickets cost £13. Contact box office to book tickets and for further information.	14	99
